EDWARD A. HOWELL

ROUTE NO. 10

HANOVER, NEW JERSEY

GREETINGS

I naturally feel proud in presenting to you my first catalog. This has been a goal for me since I started growing glads in 1929. I hope to treat everybody the way I would like to be treated under the same circumstances. I realize that this isn't the largest or the most elaborate catalog in the trade but I will try to make it better each year, if my venture meets with success.

I specialize in growing thousands of seedlings each year and must have most of the good new varieties as well as a good stock of the older and standard kinds. I list some old ones although not in quantity. I grow quite a few varieties that aren't listed. If you are looking for something for hybridizing, write me and I may have it.

I operate a greenhouse as well as two florist shops and have been selling glads wholesale and retail as cut flowers for nearly twenty years. I think I know what a good cut flower is.

This year I am introducing two glads of my own and one for Art Hess of Union, N. J. I am sure that you will like them. Autumn Leaf is a tall clean smoky, Darling is an orange and yellow combination. A good cut flower glad. Marietta is a real addition to the small decoratives. Art has some other good ones. Perhaps I can get him to part with them another year.

I won't bother you with a long list of testimonials on the merits of my originations. I have sent them to growers in various parts of the country for trial. Most reports have been favorable. Some grew much better for others than for me. Usually glads that grow well in New Jersey will grow well any place.

I have often said that when I issued a catalog I would like to make it an honest one. I have tried to do just that. Perhaps I'll be condemned for it, perhaps I won't sell any bulbs. I am telling you how they grow for me. They may do better for you. If you like the variety, try it. I am only trying to point to the faults that show up the way they grow for me. I know that there are very few perfect glads on the market today, nevertheless if you grew glads twenty years ago you would appreciate the advancement and refinement in the glads of today. As a whole glads today are a long step ahead of anything grown then and there is no reason to believe that the glads of tomorrow won't be much better.

Our garden is located on State Highway 10 in Northern New Jersey, between Newark and Morristown. Visitors are always welcome. Seedlings and newer named varieties are in bloom from early July until October.

HOWELL ORIGINATIONS

1948 Releases

Autum Leaf 580—85 Days

Picardy and Beacon

Autumn Leaf is a bright clean smoky of yellow and brown. Edges of petals are suffused plum shading to reddish brown, blending to large cream yellow throat, midribs are cream yellow. A very attractive striking color combination. 7 or 8 six inch flowers open on an 18 bud spike that stretches to a 30 inch head. A very tall grower, with broad foliage, a medium propagator. Florets are slightly ruffled with excellent placement. Has no show record as yet. I expect to show it at a number of shows this season. I sent bulbs out on trial to several parts of the country and all reports are excellent on Autumn Leaf. Large $5.00, medium $4.00, small $3.00, bulblets 50c each.

Darling 420—75 Days

(Golden Dawn, Yellow Perfection and Golden Chimes)

Picardy

An attractive yellow and orange blend with a small red spot in the throat. Must be seen to be appreciated. Vote of commendation at New Jersey Gladiolus Seedling Show 1948. 5 to 6 five inch florets open on a spike of 16 to 17 buds. 24 inch head with excellent placement and good attachment. This variety's chief value is in its commercial possibilities. I have always been able to sell all the cut flowers I could grow of Darling. Increases very rapidly. Most reports on this have been favorable. There were two reports of short heads. Large $2.00, medium $1.50, small $1.00, bulblets 5 for $1.00.

1948 RELEASE

Britelite 220—70 Days

(Yellow Perfections and Golden Dream)

Picardy

Although I list Britelite as 220 from reports received on it I will probably have to change it to 320. A beautifully ruffled orange and yellow blend. A bright orange with a yellow throat. A 20 bud spike on a 5 foot plant, 7 to 8 open with 6 showing color. 3 to 3¾ inch florets. Placement has always been perfect, and spike straight. I am going to use the remarks of a grower in Michigan who tried it last year that will tell you more than I can about it. "This is a honey". "All spikes did not vary two inches for me. 28 inch head. A perfect medium decorative and gorgeous under artificial lights. A favorite with me." A rapid propagator. Large $1.00, medium 75c, small 50c, bulblets 10 for $1.00.

Edith Larson 317—85 Days

Queen Mary and Phyllis McQuiston

A buff that is different with a large rose spot in the throat. One that you will either like or dislike. Have had some fine reports on this. Wins blue ribbons wherever shown, unless Mrs. Fortman has a spike of her magnificently grown Patrol in the same class. Opens 8 to 10 four inch florets (I have had reports of 6 inch florets) on an 18 bud spike. Very heavy foliage on a 60 inch, or better, plant. Makes plenty of large bulblets which all grow and sometimes bloom. Sells well as a cut flower in Northern New Jersey. Large $3.00, medium $2.00, small $1.00, bulblets 4 for $1.00.

Mount Blanc 506 or 516—85 Days

Golden Frills and Golden Dream

A verly large cream or buff, depending on soil and climate, blending to a creamy yellow throat. 6 to 8 six inch florets open on a medium tall spike of 18 to 20 buds. Spikes always straight with good placement. Especially valuable in breeding for yellows as it is a cross of Golden Frills and Golden Dream. Large $3.00, medium $2.00, small $1.00, bulblets 4 for $1.00.

1947 RELEASE

Orange Opal 320—90 Days

A medium to late blooming glad, a blend of bright opalescent orange shading to yellow in throat. Has been variable in performance. A well grown spike can always win for you. Open six 4 inch winged florets on a medium spike of 17 buds. Very vigorous grower, with a few crooks and some short heads. My wholesaler can use all I can cut, especially during October. Increases rapidly. Useful in hybridizing for yellow. Large $2.00, medium $1.50, small 75c, bulblets 5 for $1.00.

Sonnet 543—85 Days

An immense medium pink self color, is very deep late in season, during cool weather. Open 6 to 8 florets between 6 and 7 inches on a 28-30 inch head of 18 buds. Grows 55 inches high. Sonnet is a tremendous propagator. I sold a good portion of my planting stock to a Florida grower this spring, consequently the price is still high. This will make an excellent show variety as well as a cut flower when more stock is grown. Florist in my locality prefer Sonnet to Picardy. Large $2.00, medium $1.50, small 75c, bulblets 5 for $1.00.

Glow 420—70 Days

A top notch early cut flower variety, considered by many growers as the best early cut flower glad on the market. All reports on Glow have been excellent. The only fault that I can find with Glow is that I wish it had a few more buds. It will make from 16 to 18 buds on a 24 inch spike, under field conditions. Opens 6-8 florets, 5½ inches across on a spike that is always straight, and doesn't vary more than a few inches in height. Rev. Rohrbach says that "A block of Glow looks like a well trimmed hedge, very even." Foliage grows low but spike grows from 55-60 inches high, makes plenty of large bulblets which all grow and sometimes bloom. The price of Glow would be much lower if I hadn't sold a good portion to a southern grower. Commands top prices in the early market. A glowing orange salmon, on the buff side, blending to a lighter throat. Large $1.00, medium 60c, small 40c, bulblets 10 for $1.00.

From A. C. Hess, Union, N. J.

Marietta 232

One of the prettiest decoratives that I have ever seen. A lacy lacinated deep pink floret with a yellow throat, reminds me of a larger edition of China Doll. If you grow China Doll you will appreciate Marietta. Won first for me in its class at Binghamton. Won three firsts at Dover, single spike, three spike and seedling. Marietta will win plenty of blue ribbons. Any size bulb $1.00. No bulblets this year.
